

The Arts Society North West Area Support Team is pleased to announce

An exclusive private tour of KNOWSLEY HALL, Liverpool Wednesday, 18th September, 2024

The home of the Stanley family since 1385, the earliest part of the present house dates from about 1500, and through the centuries has been altered and added to so that now it boasts a fine Georgian façade with magnificent Jacobean, Baroque and Victorian interiors. Lancelot 'Capability' Brown's influence can be seen in the grounds and a delight for lovers of fine paintings is the internationally important art collection, assembled over the generations.

The present Earl and Countess of Derby undertook a major restoration in the 1990s, so that today it is a lovingly cared-for family home as well as an elegant wedding and events venue. It is only open to the general public for just one week a year in August, so we are privileged indeed.

Expert-led tours of the house will start at 2.00 p.m. Tea/coffee and cake will be served in the house afterwards. The total cost is £29.50 per person.

Accessibility needs can be catered for, but MUST be notified at least one week in advance, as we cannot guarantee to make arrangements ad hoc.
